

US Army Corps
of Engineers

ADMINISTRATIVE FEES

Corbis.com

10 April 2002

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation
2002 Joint Real Estate/Natural
Resources Conference

TITLE 10, Subtitle A, PART IV, CHAPTER 159, Sec. 2695.

Sec. 2695. - Acceptance of funds to cover administrative expenses relating to certain real property transactions

(a) Authority To Accept. -

In connection with a real property transaction referred to in subsection (b) with a non-Federal person or entity, the Secretary of a military department may accept amounts provided by the person or entity to cover administrative expenses incurred by the Secretary in entering into the transaction.

(b) Covered Transactions. -

Subsection (a) applies to the following transactions involving real property under the control of the Secretary of a military department:

- (1) The exchange of real property.
- (2) The grant of an easement over, in, or upon real property of the United States.
- (3) The lease or license of real property of the United States.
- (4) The disposal of real property of the United States for which the Secretary will be the disposal agent.

(c) Use of Amounts Collected. -

Amounts collected under subsection (a) for administrative expenses shall be credited to the appropriation, fund, or account from which the expenses were paid. Amounts so credited shall be merged with funds in such appropriation, fund, or account and shall be available for the same purposes and subject to the same limitations as the funds with which merged.

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Future Design Lake Sidney Lanier Project Office

Erwin Topper, Prop.

Front Elevation

Corbis.com

10 April 2002

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation
2002 Joint Real Estate/Natural
Resources Conference

US Army Corps
of Engineers

Lake Texoma, circa 2020

Corbis.com

10 April 2002

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation
2002 Joint Real Estate/Natural
Resources Conference

US Army Corps
of Engineers

ADMINISTRATIVE FEES

10 April 2002

One Corps Serving the Army and the Nation
2002 Joint Real Estate/Natural
Resources Conference